

6. Holiday brochures about IBIZA

IBIZA is one Europe's most popular package holiday resort. Almost every travel agent's organizes trips to it, because with its pleasant climate and temperature – between 5-25 °C throughout the year – Ibiza attracts many tourists. Travel agencies offer half-board services with breakfast and dinner, and even self-catering facilities for families who would like to cook for themselves. Some recent changes show the development of Ibiza (more villas and apartments, new roads, airport etc.), which helped the local governments and communities. But the growth in tourism can cause harm, bad effect on the environment, the countryside by the tourists leaving empty glasses, cans and other litter behind.
